Team Southside signs 明行协行西生谊友 亲生协生协喜时西喜 from Japan to run sport in the U.S.A.

Tomoharu Yamamichi from Sekine Mutu-shi, Aomori-Ken Japan
Tomoharu will be making his USA racing career debut for Team Southside in Malone NY next weekend. He will be starting off in the sport class on the new Polaris IQ 600. He is 21 years old, and is 5 foot 6 inches, 110 pounds. He has been riding bikes all his life, and been riding snowmobiles for the past couple years, and he wanted to try racing. He will be racing along side Chris Ackerman and Bruce Gaspardi Jr. in the Sport division for the remainder of the season. He is really looking forward to coming out here and competing in the US.

Melanie Acker looking to continue dominance in Womens Division at Malone.

Melanie has been very strong in the first three rounds of the Rockmaple Circuit in the Womens classes with multiple podium finishes and looks to continue that this coming weekend at Malone, she looked good over the weekend at a one day event in which she won womens stock and finished 3rd in Sport Stock.

After three rounds, she leads the Pro Womens Points, and is in 3rd in both Womens 600 Saturday and Womens 600 Sunday, so look for her out front in the coming weekends.

Bruce Gaspardi Jr. looking for multiple podiums at Malone.

Bruce has been running mid pack in the first three rounds of the RMR Circuit and will be looking to get out front this coming weekend. He feels good after running a one day event this past Saturday with Dave and Melanie. where he ran Pro with Dave. So keep an eye out at Malone for him in the sport division.

Robert Graeber Qualifys for Winter X Games 2008 in Aspen.

Along with Qualifying for Winter X. After the first three rounds of the RMR Circuit he is leading both Semi Pro Open and Super Stock and has multiple final wins. He feels very comfortable on his Polaris IQ 600 stocker and Mod and is looking to keep his streak going next weekend at Malone.

Derek Graham, is doing what he does best and that is staying consistent.

Graham started off this season where he left off last season. With three rounds behind him this season he has three runner ups and fourth so far which puts him runner up to Robert in Semi Pro Stock points and 3rd in Open points with plenty of time to battle for the top spot, so look for him out front this coming weekend at Malone.

Davis back healthy and in the hunt in the Semi Pro Division.

Bradford Davis will be back in the lineup at the Malone and is now 100% after breaking a bone in his foot Saturday morning at Whaleback in the beginning of December, so look for him to be in the mix in both Semi Pro Super Stock and Open.

Livingston looking for podiums at Malone this weekend.

David Livingston has had a rough first three rounds this season but looks to rebound this weekend at Malone. After running two one day events over this past weekend, on Saturday placing 1st in Pro Stock and 2nd in Pro Open, and then Sunday placing 5th in Semi Pro Open, and 3rd in Pro Open, feels very confident and ready for round four this weekend at Malone, so look for his Black Rockstar Polaris to be near the front this weekend.

Ackerman looks to rebound at Malone.

Chris Ackerman will be looking to rebound after a rough weekend at Rumford, but were not worried because he is a very skilled rider and will get it done in the Sport division so look for him out front this weekend.
